Today's Market Reports

WALL STREET CLOSE HEAVY.
New York, July 1.—Representative stocks moved with some uncertainty today but a few of the minor issues in the general group were higher. Dealings were restricted, the professional element showing little disposition to make new commitments in view of impending developments. The close was heavy.

Chicago Board of Trade.

Cereals—July 1—Wheat rose today an amount of strength at Liverpool and because of rains which were expected to delay threshing of the winter crop. Weakness in coarse grain, however, led to selling that wiped out all the advance. After opening 1-1/2 to 3-1/2 cents higher, the market gradually settled back to last night's level.

The close was firm, 1-5 to 1-4 cent above last night.

Potential moisture southwest led to a rise of selling in the corn crop. The opening, which was 1-4 to 1-3/4 cents was followed by an additional fall before any reaction set in.

The close was unsettled, ranging from 1-1/4 cent decline to 1-4 cent advance, compared with last night.

Cots eased off with corn, provisions being to last night's quotations.

FRONTIER DAYS TO BE FEATURE AT STATE FAIR

Broncho Busting, Roping Contests, Races and Other "Cowboy Stunts" will be on Tapis Every day of the week

Characteristic western flavor is to be given the state fair. There will be frontier day events for every day of the week during the show. Secretary Tom Binkert said today that valuable prizes will be offered for the frontier event winners. It is believed that the "boys" will come in from the ranches eagerly and enthusiastically when they hear of the prizes to be won by skill and daring.

The program will be the usual one at frontier day shows. There will be broncho busting, roping, relay races, cow pony races, races between cowboys and cowgirls, and potato races. The events will spread over the whole week. The broncho busting contest will be a week-long event in itself. Each day elimination contests will be held until finally, on the last day of the fair, the pick of the busters will be pitted in a struggle for supremacy—the pick of the busters against the wildest horses.

There will be no "bulldogging." The program will be sufficiently varied without that.

Secretary Binkert is busy reading proofs of the premium book. In a few days the premium book will be issued, and farmers and stockmen will know what prizes they are best equipped to aim for.

SAFE AND SANE IN ALBUQUERQUE BUT NOT IN OLD TOWN

Old Albuquerque offers the Duke City its only warrant over the Fourth of July. Albuquerque has strict ordinances of the safe and sane brand, but it is said that a good deal of fireworks is being sold in Old Town.

No city ordinance forbids the sale of anything in the way of pyrotechnics. It is sweeping and complete. Under it a man who strikes a match on the street and says "Hooray" at one end and the same time comes close to fracturing the regulation.
